

Photo copyright Anthony Cheesman, 2007

Bicycle Superstore Albury Downhill Race

Photo copyright Ray Sullivan, 2008.

Sunday 23rd November, 2008
Nail Can Hill, Albury.

- 4 hours of shuttled practice on a purpose-built downhill mountain-bike trail
- 2 timed race runs for every competitor (the fastest of which will be used)
- $35 entry fee (for registrations and payment received by Monday 17th Nov)
- $40 for late entries and entries received on the day, providing the field has not already filled (Field is limited to 50 riders)
- An MTBA Race License is mandatory for all riders and will need to be sighted on the day (or an MTBA Day Permit can be purchased for an additional $15)
- Registration from 9am at the staging area behind the Kalianna Sheltered Workshop (at the corner of Sackville St and Queen St, Albury)
- Competitors' brief at 9:45am, practice from 10am-2pm & racing from 3-5pm
- St. John First Aid volunteers will be in attendance all day
- A full-face helmet approved to Australian Standards (or international equivalent) and plugged bar-ends are mandatory for all riders (as per MTBA rules) and body-armour is recommended
- Category awards and spot prizes
- Refer any queries to DayOnTheCan@optusnet.com.au (or contact Mark on 0416 222080)

Registration forms are available from <http://alburywodongamt.org.au/>
or from the Bicycle Superstore Albury.

These MTB trails and events are supported by the NSW Department of Lands and Albury City Council in conjunction with the Albury Wodonga Mountainbikers